Summary

During last years, youth work assumed a central role for young generation of EU citizens, crossing edges, nationalities and cultures, making the encounter between young people easier and productive.

In the same way, methods, tools, best practices of youth work can be really strong instruments for contributing to improve integration of migrant people in the different European contexts.

In fact, through the application of youth work methods could become easier and efficient working on creating connections and encounter inside the communities between locals and foreigner, especially looking at young people.

This perspective becomes essential in this historical phase, in which it is fundamental to improve relationships and reinforcing communities between people, for combating pressure of nationalism ideologies and suspicion against foreigners, really dangerous elements for the EU space cohesion.

For reaching this aim, it is fundamental developing education of youth workers with special focus on these themes and creating a good and efficient network of youth workers and youth organizations and NGOs across the different countries.

The project will contribute to these scopes at local level (reinforcing the skills of youth workers), but also at EU level (giving them the possibility to act inside a framework of cooperation between EU non profit organizations).

Objectives of the project

1. To reinforce and increase quality of youth work in Europe about its role of promoting and proving integration of migrants and foreigners, through the creation of an educational path for youth workers that will give them new instruments, skills and practices, increasing their capacities;
2. To create a strong network for encounters of organizations, professionals, volunteers that work in non profit fields for social inclusion and integration of migrants: the network will be supported by the creation of a website directed to facilitate encounters of European organizations, exchange of tools and best practices between NGOs and individuals.

A.Participants will gain tools, instruments and best practices in the field of youth work specifically related to the social inclusion and the integration of migrants and foreigners

B.Reinforcement of the network of EU non profit organization committed in promoting integration of migrants in Europe and peaceful coexistence.

C.The creation of the Website for youth work and integration, an instruments that will consent to build networks, projects and spread tools and best practices between European non profit organizations and individuals.

The main impacts, also in terms of long term benefits, will be the ones of:

- improving and promoting the role of youth work in EU integration policies;
- facilitating networking and creation of projects and efficient action of NGOs and non profit organization in the field of social inclusion of migrants at all levels (local and regional, national, European and international);
- promoting new efficient solutions in the filed of immigration policies for contributing to combat nationalisms and divisions between European states, starting from new generations and action of non profit organization.

Profile

Participants

4 Members for each partner

Participants in the Learning Teaching Training Activity (short-term joint staff training event) will be selected by each involved organization.

They will be people involved in the fields of youth, social inclusion and integration as leaders, volunteers, educators and operators (youth workers).

Activity

The activity will focus on creating an educational path for participants sent by each organization. So it will be a training activity aimed to improve participants knowledge and skills about youth work as instrument for promoting and implementing integration of migrants and foreigners in their communities and society.

According to EU Commission, "Youth work helps young people to reach their full potential. It encourages personal development, autonomy, initiative and participation in society".

According to what mentioned in the previous "Project Description" section, people and organization committed in non profit and social inclusion fields will gain instruments for acting, but in network with other people and organizations form various countries of Europe.

All working sessions will be based on nonformal education methods, with the direct protagonism of participants, guided by the two selected coaches of Idea Europa.

1. Groups works will consent to all participants to assume an active role in the debates and in the development of proposal, at the same time stimulating the discussion between people with the purpose of arriving to a common solution.
 2. Assembly works will stimulate the public debate, the capacity to promote the ideas and the proposals to a bigger audience.
 3. Simulation works will consent to participants to test their capacity of analysing reality and, by the confrontation with the others, the capacity of finding the best instruments for facing problems and arriving at the expected results.
 4. The encounter with other stakeholders and key actors will permit and stimulate the sharing of ideas, experiences, best practices and tools.
- All contents and materials developed during the 5 days will be collected, uploaded and promoted on the website of the project.
